00.00.00.00	(I'm Alex Carroll, the creator of what just might be ... the coolest Valentine's Day gift ... you've ever seen)
00.00.08.16	(I collect them because they're beautiful ... and I love what they symbolize. )
00.00.13.22	(I'll scan a million rocks before I see one this good. )
00.00.16.18	(These are made by the ocean ... they wash up on the beach. )
00.00.19.13	(I never had any plans of doing anything with them ... and what happened was ... I needed a clock. )
00.00.26.19	(And so I finally decided ... You know what ... why don't I just make one myself. )
00.00.30.08	(And then everybody wanted one. )
00.00.32.07	(That was the first time I actually sat down and counted up all my heart rocks ... and it turned out I had over a thousand of them. So I was like well ... that's enough to make a hundred clocks. )
00.00.40.29	(Once I started this project my creative juices started flowing and I thought ... wouldn't it be cool if I made a pendant. And then I also thought ... wouldn't it be beautiful if I made a picture frame)
00.00.51.08	(You know a friend of mine always says love is spelled T-I-M-E ... and he's right. )
00.01.00.08	(You know I read once that the average person looks at a clock 50 times a day)

00.01.05.14	(Imagine how it would change your life ... if every time you looked at this clock and saw these hearts ... those hearts reminded you to reach out to somebody that you love ... reach out to somebody that you care about ... and give them a little bit of your time. )
00.01.20.23	(And I've made every single one of these clocks by hand ... and one of them ... is so rare and so special, that it literally, could be the rarest timepiece ... on the planet.)
00.01.36.05	(You know I can't think of a more beautiful Valentine's Day gift that a prince could give a princess than that pendant)
00.01.42.22	(It's their first official Valentine's Day coming up ... and I just found out something recently that I never knew, which is that the world's largest collection of rare clocks is in Buckingham Palace. )
00.01.59.09	So ... I think it's perfect for them
